Commercial Stainless Steel Deep Fryer

This commercial deep fryer is constructed of stainless steel. It features a temperature control dial, indicator lights, and a removable frying basket.

Product Overview

High-Performance Commercial Deep Fryer

This commercial-grade deep fryer is engineered for high-volume food preparation in professional kitchen environments. Constructed from durable stainless steel, it ensures longevity and easy sanitation for busy culinary operations. The unit features precise temperature control and an intuitive indicator system to maintain consistent cooking results across every batch.

Construction & Design

Material	Stainless Steel
Key Design Features	Removable Frying Basket, Temperature Control Dial, Indicator Lights

Performance

Usage Environment

Professional Kitchen • High-Volume