

4.3-inch Two-Wire Video Intercom Indoor Monitor

This indoor monitor is designed for two-wire video intercom systems used in building access control. It features a 4.3-inch display for audio and video communication with visitors, enabling remote door unlocking and entrance monitoring.

Product Overview

Professional Indoor Intercom Solution

This 4.3-inch color video indoor monitor is designed for modern building access control systems. It facilitates secure audio and video communication with visitors, allowing for remote door unlocking and entrance monitoring. The two-wire connection architecture ensures a streamlined and efficient installation process for residential and commercial buildings.

Technical Specifications

Display Size	4.3 inch
Wiring Type	Two-wire
Model Identifier	RL-617B43

Features

Core Functions	Audio Communication, Video Communication, Remote Door Unlocking, Live Entrance Monitoring
Display Technology	Color TFT