

Agricultural Sprayers

Agricultural sprayers are used to evenly distribute liquids over crops. They can be used for applying pesticides, herbicides, and fertilizers.

Product Overview

Agricultural Spraying Solutions

These agricultural sprayers are designed for precision crop management and chemical application in various farming environments. Built for durability and consistent coverage, they provide professional-grade performance to ensure efficient distribution of liquids across fields. These units are essential for maintaining crop health and maximizing agricultural yield.

Key Performance Metrics

Efficiency Metrics

95 %

Coverage Uniformity

15 bar

Operating Pressure

Technical Specifications

Build Quality

- Corrosion-resistant nozzle
- High-density polymer tank
- Reinforced pressure hose

Operation Modes

Mist, Stream, Fan Spray