

Aluminum Window Friction Stays

Aluminum friction stays ensure smooth and reliable window operation. They are available in L-type and U-type configurations with a 37-degree angle and lengths of 9, 13, and 20.

Product Overview

High-Performance Friction Stays

These high-quality aluminum friction stays are engineered for smooth and reliable window operation. Featuring a durable powder-coated finish, they are built to withstand daily use while maintaining structural integrity. Available in versatile L-type and U-type configurations, these stays provide precise control for various window designs.

Technical Specifications

Available Lengths

- 9
- 13
- 20

Channel Thickness	2 mm
Arm Thickness	4 mm
Opening Angle	37 deg
Configuration Types	L-type, U-type
Finish	Powder Coated