

Automatic Water Pump Electronic Switch

This automatic control unit is designed for water pump systems. It features indicator lights displaying power on, pump on, and failure status.

Product Overview

Professional Automatic Pump Control

This automatic water pump electronic switch is designed to provide reliable, automated control for water pump systems. It features a robust housing with clear indicator lights for power status, pump operation, and error monitoring. Engineered for protection and efficiency, the unit includes an integrated reset function and is built to withstand demanding conditions with an IP65 rating.

Technical Specifications

Protection Class

IP65

Control Features

- Automated pump control
- System damage protection
- Manual reset functionality

Status Indicators

Power On, Pump On, Failure

Installation

Threaded inlet and outlet ports