

Autonomous UV Disinfection Robot with Atomization

This autonomous mobile robot uses ultrasonic atomization to disperse a fine mist of 3% hydrogen peroxide solution, achieving thorough disinfection at room temperature. The robot combines this atomization with UV light to eliminate pathogens in complex environments, automatically mapping its route and saving work records.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

