

Carbon Fiber Mountain Bike with Hydraulic Disc Brakes

This mountain bike features a carbon fiber frame for stiffness and vibration damping. Equipped with hydraulic disc brakes, it provides reliable stopping power in various conditions.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Performance Carbon Fiber MTB

The ARES 6.3 is a professional-grade mountain bike engineered for off-road performance and durability. Constructed with a lightweight carbon fiber frame, it offers superior stiffness and vibration damping for a responsive, comfortable ride on challenging terrains. Equipped with high-performance hydraulic disc brakes, this bike ensures reliable stopping power and enhanced control in diverse riding conditions.

Technical Specifications

Frame Material	Carbon fibre
Wheel Size	27.5"
Model Name	ARES 6.3
Bike Type	Mountain Bike

Ordering & Customization

Service Type	OEM • Customized Service
Minimum Order Quantity	50
Customization	Logo Customization, Packaging Customization, Pattern Customization