

Carbon Steel Wrecking Bar

This wrecking bar is constructed from forged carbon steel and heat-treated for durability. It features a curved claw on one end for nail pulling and a chisel point on the other for demolition tasks.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade Wrecking Bar

This heavy-duty wrecking bar is crafted from high-quality 65 Mn steel, ensuring exceptional strength and durability for demanding construction and demolition tasks. The tool features a dual-end design with a curved claw for efficient nail pulling and a chisel point for precise breaking and prying applications. Engineered for professional use, its ergonomic design provides optimal leverage and a comfortable grip to reduce user fatigue during intensive work.

Technical Specifications

Material	65 Mn Steel
Bar Diameter	12 mm
Blade Width	25 mm

Key Features

Performance Highlights

0.566841 ID
Article Number

Features	Corrosion Resistant, High Visibility Finish, Dual-End Design, Hardened Steel
----------	--