

Commercial Multi-Story Building

This is a multi-story commercial building. The building features a combination of horizontal and vertical window placements.

Overview

Architectural Significance

This multi-story commercial building stands as a testament to high-quality construction and elegant architectural design. With a focus on maximizing natural light through a blend of horizontal and vertical window arrangements, the structure offers a modern and spectacular aesthetic. It has been recognized with prestigious industry accolades, including the Hibiscus Award and the Luban Award, underscoring its excellence in construction standards.

Technical Specifications

Total Building Area	34118 m ²
Main Building Height	91.3 m
Construction Year	1997

Awards and Recognition

Awards Received

- 1998 Hunan Construction Application of New Technology Demonstration Project
- 1998 Hunan Province Quality Engineering
- 1998 Hunan Province Hibiscus Award
- 1999 Luban Award

Project Status

Award-Winning • Quality Certified