

Cylinder Lock Core with Keys

Standard cylinder lock core is made of copper. It is suitable for various door types and includes multiple keys.

Product Overview

Professional Cylinder Lock Core

This high-quality cylinder lock core is crafted from durable copper to ensure longevity and reliable performance for various door types. The design is engineered to meet standard industry requirements, providing both security and ease of use. Each unit comes with a convenient set of keys, making it an ideal choice for residential or commercial replacement projects.

Technical Specifications

Application

- Standard Door Types
- Residential Doors
- Commercial Doors

Material

Copper

Available Finishes

Red Antique Copper (AC), Assorted Standard Colors

Keys Included

Yes