

Double Share Plough for Walking Tractors

This double share plough is designed for use with walking tractors in agricultural applications. It facilitates efficient soil turning and preparation for planting.

Overview

Double Share Plough for Walking Tractors

The 1LS-220C double share plough is specifically designed for use with walking tractors in agricultural applications. This implement facilitates efficient soil turning and preparation for planting. Its robust construction ensures durability and reliable performance in demanding field conditions, offering versatility and ease of integration for various farming operations.

Technical Details

Model Number	1LS-220C
Plough Type	Double Share

Application

Compatible Equipment	Walking Tractor
Primary Use	Cultivating and soil preparation