

Ergonomic Bicycle Saddle for Performance Riding

This bicycle saddle is designed for comfort and performance. It features a durable construction and ergonomic design to provide support during long rides.

Product Overview

Performance-Focused Ergonomic Design

The XP-5010 is an ergonomic bicycle saddle engineered for riders who prioritize both comfort and high performance. Featuring a durable construction, this saddle is specifically designed to provide essential support during extended cycling sessions. Its versatile build ensures it is compatible with a wide variety of bicycle types.

Physical Specifications

Weight	280 g
Dimensions	24cm x 15cm

Commercial Details

Package Quantity	40 pcs
------------------	--------

Key Metrics

Key Metrics

280 g Weight	40 pcs Bulk Quantity
------------------------	--------------------------------