

Freestanding Access Control Door Station

This free-standing door station provides a comprehensive solution for access control and communication. Featuring a sleek, modern design with a user-friendly interface, it offers advanced functionality for secure entry management.

Overview

Professional Access Control Solution

This freestanding door station provides a comprehensive, modern solution for secure entry management and visitor communication. Designed for commercial buildings, residential complexes, and gated communities, it combines a sleek aesthetic with a user-friendly interface. The integrated display ensures clear visual communication, while intuitive controls streamline operations for both residents and visitors.

Ideal Applications

Commercial Buildings, Residential Complexes, Gated Communities

Features

Key Capabilities

- Integrated display screen
- Intuitive user interface
- Advanced access control management
- Clear visual communication

Design

Design Aesthetic

Freestanding • Modern • Sleek