

High-Intensity Propane Torch with Adjustable Flame

This high-intensity propane torch features a durable brass burner and adjustable flame control. It is equipped with a comfortable blue grip handle and a reinforced propane hose for safe gas supply, making it ideal for soldering, brazing, heat treating, and thawing.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional High-Intensity Heating Solution

This high-intensity propane torch is engineered for demanding tasks, featuring a durable zinc-plated construction and a brass burner for consistent performance. Designed for safety and reliability, it includes an adjustable flame control and a trigger for precise momentary bursts. The unit is CSA certified, making it a trusted choice for international markets including North America, suitable for soldering, brazing, heat treating, and thawing applications.

Technical Specifications

Body Material	Zinc-plated metal with brass burner
Max Working Pressure	350 PSI
Hose Size	5/16 inch

Compliance and Safety

Regulatory Standards

- CSA 8.3
- UL 21 1Q/18

Certifications	CSA Certified, UL 21 compliant
----------------	--------------------------------