

HVLP Gravity Feed Spray Gun

This spray gun is designed for professional painting applications. It features a gravity-feed system and adjustable nozzle for precise control and consistent coverage.

Overview

Professional Performance

The W-200 is a high-performance gravity-feed spray gun engineered for professional applications, including paints, lacquers, and varnishes. Designed with ergonomics in mind, it provides superior comfort during prolonged use. The unit features an adjustable nozzle that allows for precise control over spray patterns and material flow, ensuring a consistent and professional finish every time.

Key Features

Advantages

Gravity Feed System, Adjustable Nozzle, Ergonomic Design, Easy Maintenance

Technical Details

Compatible Coatings

- Paints
- Lacquers
- Varnishes

Material Construction

High-Quality Materials • Durable Construction