

Manual Cookie Press with Interchangeable Dies

This manual cookie press features a stainless steel body and includes multiple nozzles and shaping discs. It is designed for extruding dough into various shapes for cookies and decorating.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Manual Cookie Press

This manual biscuit making machine is a compact and practical tool designed for efficient dough extrusion and decoration. Constructed primarily from high-quality stainless steel, it offers durability and ease of use for creating consistent cookie shapes. The kit includes versatile attachments, allowing for both shaping and intricate cream decoration.

Technical Specifications

Material Composition	Stainless Steel, Aluminum, Plastic
Biscuit Shapes	8 forms
Included Nozzles	8 nozzles
Operation	Manual

Features

Key Features

- Interchangeable die plates for varied cookie designs
- Stainless steel construction for hygiene and durability
- Plunger mechanism for precise dough dispensing
- Includes cream piping nozzles for decoration