

Manual Plaster Trowel with Curved Handle

This manual tool is designed for decoration and building applications. It features a straight, rigid blade with a silver finish and a curved yellow handle with black circular grips.

Product Overview

Professional Manual Plaster Trowel

This manual plaster trowel is engineered for precision in decoration and building applications. Featuring a robust, rigid blade with a high-quality silver finish, it ensures durability and smooth application for various construction tasks. The ergonomic curved handle, accented with black grips, provides enhanced control and comfort during extended use.

Technical Details

Model Number	DT2103E
Blade Finish	Silver
Handle Type	Curved with black grips

Application

Primary Applications	Construction, Decoration, Plastering
----------------------	--------------------------------------