

Mini Racing Motorcycle

This mini racing motorcycle is designed for agility and performance on smaller tracks. It features a lightweight chassis and responsive engine for quick acceleration and precise control.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Performance-Oriented Mini Racing Motorcycle

The MINI-GP is a compact racing motorcycle engineered for agility and speed on the track. Featuring a lightweight chassis, aerodynamic bodywork, and a responsive engine, it provides an exhilarating experience for both competitive racing and recreational riding. Designed with race-derived components including high-performance suspension and advanced braking systems, this bike offers the precision and control needed by aspiring racers.

Technical Specifications

Chassis & Design

- Lightweight chassis construction
- Aerodynamic bodywork with clear windscreen
- Single seat racing configuration
- High-mounted racing exhaust system

Suspension & Braking

Component	Details
Front Suspension	Telescopic forks
Braking System	Disc brakes
Tires	Low-profile performance tires

Performance

Performance Highlights

1 Person
Seat Capacity

Design

Color Palette

Red, White, Blue