

Mobile Broadcast Unit

This mobile unit is designed for radio and television broadcasting. It features a durable chassis, dual-axle configuration, and enclosed equipment compartment for on-location broadcasting and communication.

Product Overview

Professional Mobile Broadcasting Solution

This mobile radio and television broadcasting unit is engineered for reliable on-location operations. Built on a robust dual-axle chassis, it provides a secure and fully enclosed environment for essential broadcast equipment. The unit is designed for ease of deployment, featuring integrated cable management and optimized access points for efficient maintenance and operation.

Technical Specifications

Chassis Type	Robust Dual-Axle
Housing	Fully enclosed equipment compartment
Operational Features	On-location broadcasting, Communication support, Integrated cable reel, Service access doors