

PA Amplifier with Cassette Deck

This compact PA amplifier features an integrated cassette deck for legacy audio formats. It delivers reliable power output for small to medium-sized venues and features multiple input channels.

Overview

Professional Audio Integration

The PA-200 is a versatile compact PA amplifier designed for professional audio reinforcement in small to medium-sized venues. This unit uniquely combines powerful audio mixing capabilities with an integrated cassette deck for legacy playback support. Engineered for durability, its robust construction ensures reliable performance even in demanding live sound environments.

Technical Specifications

Model	PA-200
Core Features	Multi-channel Mixing, Cassette Playback, Compact Design, Robust Construction
Input Configuration	Multiple input channels with individual level controls