

Palace of the Congress Replica

This is a replica of The Palace of the Congress in Cameroon. The building is a government or civic center.

Product Overview

Architectural Significance

The Palace of the Congress replica captures the iconic architectural design of this prominent Cameroonian landmark. Featuring a modern aesthetic with distinctive structural elements, this model serves as a faithful representation for collectors and professionals alike. Its detailed composition highlights the civic importance and visual grandeur of the original structure.

Design Features

Key Architectural Elements

- Modern architectural design
- Prominent fountain feature
- Large window detailing
- Flag display integration

Product Type

Scale Model • Architectural Replica • Display Piece