

Professional Film Projector

This professional-grade film projector is designed for high-quality film projection. It features a precise film transport mechanism and adjustable projection settings for optimal image clarity.

Product Overview

High-Performance Film Projection

The 5565 is a professional-grade film projector engineered for high-quality cinematic performance. Featuring a robust construction and a precision-engineered film transport mechanism, it ensures smooth, reliable operation in demanding environments. Equipped with a high-intensity light source and advanced optics, the system delivers vibrant, detailed imagery suitable for cinemas and screening rooms.

Technical Specifications

Suitable Environments

- Commercial cinemas
- Professional screening rooms
- Institutional projection environments

Projection Capabilities

Vibrant image quality, Detailed optics, Adjustable brightness

Operational Features

Build Quality

Professional Grade • Robust Construction • Precision Transport