

Standard Commuter Motorcycle

This standard motorcycle features a four-stroke engine, a tubular steel frame, and telescopic front forks. Designed for everyday commuting, it includes a conventional fuel tank, a stepped seat, and chrome exhaust pipes.

Overview

Reliable Commuter Performance

This standard commuter motorcycle is engineered for everyday reliability and efficient transportation. Featuring a robust four-stroke engine and a durable tubular steel frame, it is built to handle the demands of daily travel. With its comfortable stepped seat and classic design elements, this bike offers a practical and straightforward solution for professional commuting needs.

Technical Specifications

Engine Type	Four-stroke
Frame Material	Tubular steel

Suspension & Handling

Front Suspension	Telescopic forks
Rear Suspension	Dual shock absorbers

Braking & Wheels

Brake System	Drum brakes
Wheel Type	Spoked wheels

Design Features

Design Highlights

Chrome exhaust pipes • Stepped seat • Conventional fuel tank