

Surface Mount Electrical Distribution Box with Transparent Window

This surface-mounted distribution box is designed for electrical distribution and circuit protection. It provides a secure housing for circuit breakers and features a transparent window for easy monitoring.

Overview

Product Overview

The CQMG05 series consumer unit is a robust, surface-mounted distribution box designed for versatile electrical circuit protection. Featuring a transparent window for immediate visual status monitoring, it is engineered for safety and ease of use in workshops, garages, and residential extensions. Its durable construction is finished with low smoke and fume paint, ensuring reliability and compliance in various installation environments.

Technical Specifications

Mounting Type	Surface Mounted
Finish	Low smoke and fume paint
Warranty	18 months

Applications

Recommended Applications	Garage, Workshop, Residential Extensions
--------------------------	--