

Youth Mountain Bicycle

This mountain bicycle is designed for young riders and off-road adventures. It features a sturdy frame, front suspension fork, and multiple gears for versatile performance on various terrains.

Product Overview

Built for Adventure

This mountain bicycle is expertly engineered for young riders seeking off-road performance and reliability. Featuring a sturdy frame and front suspension fork, it handles rugged terrain with ease while providing a comfortable ride. With adjustable components and safety-focused features, it is an ideal choice for growing cyclists looking to explore trails.

Design & Specifications

Frame Color	Red and Black
Model Identifiers	TD, SPORT SSRPH, 211, THUNDER

Performance & Features

Adjustability

- Adjustable seat height
- Ergonomic handlebar grips

Safety Features

Reflectors • Reliable Braking System

Suspension	Front suspension fork
Tire Design	Knobby tires for off-road traction
Drivetrain	Multiple gears for versatile terrain