

21-Speed Full Suspension Mountain Bike with Steel Frame

This full suspension mountain bike features a durable steel frame and front suspension fork to absorb bumps and provide a smooth ride. Equipped with 21-speed Shimano drivetrain for versatile gearing and reliable shifting performance on various terrains.

Product Overview

Product Overview

This 21-speed full suspension mountain bike is engineered for versatility and durability, featuring a robust steel frame suitable for various terrains. Equipped with a reliable Shimano drivetrain, it offers smooth gear transitions for both rugged trails and paved surfaces. The combination of front suspension and all-terrain tires ensures a comfortable and controlled riding experience for recreational users.

Technical Specifications

Gears	21
Frame Material	Steel
Suspension	Full suspension
Drivetrain	Shimano

Components

Rim Material	Alloy
Tire Type	All-terrain

Features

Key Features

- Durable steel frame construction
- Reliable Shimano shifting performance
- Front suspension for bump absorption
- Lightweight alloy rims
- Traction-focused all-terrain tires

Intended Use	Recreational, Trail riding, Paved surfaces
--------------	--