

2x2A Fiber Optic Switch

This 2x2A optical switch is designed for routing optical signals in communication systems. It features low insertion loss, high isolation, and supports a wide range of wavelengths.

