

35-Story Residential Building

This is a 35-layer building covering an area of 65 square kilometers. It is a high-rise residential building complex.

Project Overview

Iconic Residential Tower

This 35-story high-rise residential complex serves as a landmark architectural achievement in the coastal region. Completed in May 1998, the building stands as a testament to high-quality civil engineering and design excellence. It received the prestigious first prize for excellent chemical industry civil building design, underscoring its structural integrity and aesthetic appeal.

Technical Specifications

Number of Stories	35
Total Area	65 km2

Project Milestones

Completion Date	May 1998
-----------------	----------

Awards and Recognition

Awards Received	First Prize: Excellent Chemical Industry Civil Building Design
-----------------	--

Project Scope

Services Included

- Engineering Design