

350ft Self-Elevating Offshore Drilling Platform

This self-elevating mobile offshore drilling platform is designed for drilling in water depths up to 350 feet. The unit features a robust hull structure, multiple legs for stability, and a drilling derrick with associated equipment for well construction and intervention.

