

46-Inch Ultra-Narrow Bezel LCD Splicing Screen

This 46-inch ultra-narrow bezel LCD splicing screen is designed for creating seamless video walls with minimal visual distraction. It is ideal for control rooms, digital signage, and presentation displays, offering excellent image quality and versatile connectivity.

Overview

High-Impact Splicing Solution

This 46-inch ultra-narrow bezel LCD splicing screen is engineered to create seamless, high-impact video walls for demanding professional environments. Featuring an ultra-slim design that minimizes visual distractions, it maximizes the active viewing area for control rooms, digital signage, and large-scale presentation displays. With robust construction and an integrated cooling system, this display ensures long-term reliability and consistent performance.

Technical Specifications

Screen Size	46 inches
Orientation Support	Landscape, Portrait

Connectivity

Input/Output Interfaces

- Video Input
- Video Output
- Audio Input
- Audio Output

Features

Key Features

Ultra-Narrow Bezel • Integrated Cooling System • High Contrast • Professional Grade