

Adjustable Angle Recessed Downlight

This downlight features a precision zinc alloy light cup, offering high efficiency and resistance to impact, corrosion, and high temperatures. Its compact design provides a classic style suitable for various indoor lighting applications.

Product Overview

Adjustable Angle Recessed Downlight

This recessed downlight fixture is engineered for versatile indoor lighting applications, offering precise control over illumination angles. Featuring a durable square brushed metal trim and a cylindrical housing, it integrates seamlessly into various ceiling types. Its adjustable design makes it an ideal solution for focused lighting, accentuating specific areas or architectural features in commercial and residential spaces.

Design & Build

Trim Finish	Brushed metal
Trim Shape	Square
Housing Style	Cylindrical

Installation & Compatibility

Ceiling Compatibility Various ceiling types
Application	Indoor, Recessed, Adjustable Angle
Bulb Compatibility	Standard light bulbs