

Adjustable Chrome-Plated Steel Wrench with Non-Slip Handle

This adjustable wrench is a versatile hand tool used for gripping and turning nuts, bolts, pipes, and other fasteners. It features a chrome-plated steel head with an adjustable jaw and a red, non-slip handle.

Product Overview

Versatile Adjustable Wrench

This adjustable wrench is a professional-grade hand tool engineered for gripping and turning a wide variety of fasteners, including nuts, bolts, and pipes. Featuring a durable chrome-plated steel head, it offers exceptional resistance to wear and corrosion. The ergonomic, non-slip handle ensures maximum control and comfort, making it an ideal choice for both demanding industrial applications and precision DIY tasks.

Technical Specifications

Material	Chrome-plated steel
Handle Features	Non-slip, Ergonomic, Coated
Tool Category	Adjustable Wrench

Usage

Primary Applications

- Nut and bolt fastening
- Pipe gripping
- Professional industrial maintenance
- General DIY repairs