

Adjustable Jaw Wrench

This adjustable wrench is designed for gripping and turning fasteners of various sizes. It features an adjustable jaw and durable construction.

Overview

Professional Adjustable Jaw Wrench

This adjustable jaw wrench is a versatile hand tool engineered for reliability in demanding environments. Constructed from high-strength chrome vanadium steel, it offers exceptional durability for fastening tasks. With a precise adjustable jaw mechanism, it accommodates a wide range of bolt and nut sizes, making it an essential addition to any maintenance or repair toolkit.

Technical Specifications

Jaw Capacity

30 mm

Max Opening

Total Length

200 mm

Material

Chrome Vanadium Steel (CrV)

Features

Application Areas

Plumbing, Automotive Repair, General Maintenance