

Adjustable Rocker Arm Sprinkler

This sprinkler features a rocker arm mechanism for consistent water distribution. Its adjustable components allow for customization of the spray distance and angle, catering to various field sizes and plant types.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Versatile Irrigation Solution

This adjustable rocker arm sprinkler is engineered for reliable and uniform water distribution in agricultural, commercial, and residential settings. Featuring durable construction with both plastic and alloy options, it offers customizable spray patterns and distance to accommodate various garden and field sizes. The intuitive rocker arm mechanism ensures consistent coverage, making it an ideal choice for precise landscape and crop maintenance.

Technical Specifications

Recommended Use

- Agricultural Irrigation
- Residential Gardening
- Commercial Landscaping

Key Features

Adjustable Spray Pattern • Rocker Arm Mechanism • Threaded Base • Wide Coverage

Material Types

Plastic, Alloy

Connection Type

Threaded base for standard garden hoses