

Air-Conditioned Cushioned Railway Passenger Car

This air-conditioned railway passenger car offers comfortable seating. It is designed to pre-high speed standards for reliable and safe passenger transport.

Overview

High-Comfort Passenger Rail Solution

The Type 25Z is a specialized air-conditioned passenger car engineered to pre-high-speed transit standards. Featuring premium cushioned seating and integrated climate control, it is designed to maximize passenger comfort during travel. This robust car offers a reliable and safe solution for a variety of modern rail transport applications.

Technical Specifications

Performance Rating

Pre-High Speed

Vehicle Model

Type 25Z

Features

Comfort Highlights

Air-Conditioned, Cushioned Seating

Applications

Suitable Applications

- Passenger transport
- Intercity rail service
- Regional transit