

Air Conditioner Electrical Whip - 1/2" x 6', 10AWG - Plastic Metal Connector

This UL Listed air conditioner electrical whip meets 2017 National Electrical Code requirements. It features a cost-effective, non-metallic design that saves electrical contractors time and money.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional HVAC Electrical Solution

This pre-assembled electrical whip is engineered for reliable power connection between air conditioning units and power sources. Featuring a durable 1/2-inch flexible conduit and 10AWG gauge wiring, it ensures safe, code-compliant operation for both residential and commercial HVAC systems. The inclusion of robust plastic and metal connectors provides a weatherproof, UV-resistant solution suitable for demanding indoor and outdoor environments.

Technical Specifications

Environment Suitability

Indoor • Outdoor • Weatherproof • UV-Resistant

Conduit Diameter	0.5 inch
Whip Length	6 ft
Wire Gauge	10AWG
Connector Materials	Plastic, Metal

Logistics & Service

Service Policies

- Free samples available (shipping costs apply)
- OEM and ODM support
- 100% self-inspection and testing
- Quality guarantee: replacement for defective items

Delivery Time	15-20 days after deposit
Payment Terms	30% deposit, balance against B/L copy