

Aluminum Friction Stays for Windows and Doors

These aluminum friction stays are designed for windows and doors. They provide adjustable friction, ensuring smooth and controlled opening and closing.

Product Overview

High-Quality Friction Stays

These aluminum friction stays are engineered for reliable performance in window and door applications. Designed to provide smooth, controlled movement, they allow for adjustable friction settings to suit various operational needs. This range includes multiple configurations and sizes to ensure compatibility with diverse installation requirements.

Technical Specifications

Available Models

- KSR-6
- KSR-8
- KSR-10
- KSR-12
- KHR-8
- KHR-10
- KPH-14
- KST-10
- KST-12
- KSA-10
- KSL8"
- KSL10"
- KSL12"
- KST10"
- KST12"
- KSA8"-18"

Material	Aluminum
Application	Windows, Doors