

Audio Component Set for Sound Systems

This set features various audio components for sound systems. It includes a mid-range speaker, a full-range speaker, a tweeter, and a crossover network unit, suitable for car or home audio systems.

Overview

High-Performance Audio Integration

This audio component set provides a versatile solution for professional sound system assembly. The kit features a meticulously balanced selection of drivers, including a mid-range unit, a full-range speaker with a protective grille, a dedicated tweeter, and a crossover network. Designed for clarity and frequency precision, these components are suitable for integration into custom home audio or automotive sound setups.

Technical Specifications

Included Components

- Mid-range speaker (blue cone with chrome basket)
- Full-range round speaker (with protective grille)
- Tweeter unit
- Crossover network unit

Build Features

Chrome basket • Protective grille • Full-frequency range

Application Compatibility

Car Audio, Home Audio Systems