

Autoclavable Safety Goggles

These autoclavable safety goggles meet ANSI Z87.1-2020 CE EN 166: 2001 standards. The goggles provide eye protection in environments requiring sterilization and feature a clear lens and adjustable strap.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Autoclavable Eye Protection

These safety goggles are engineered for demanding environments that require frequent sterilization, such as medical, laboratory, and pharmaceutical settings. Featuring a robust, autoclavable design, they withstand repeated high-temperature cycles without compromising structural integrity or anti-fog performance. The indirect ventilation system and soft frame ensure comfort during extended wear, even when placed over prescription eyeglasses.

Standards & Compliance

Certified Standards	ANSI Z87.1-2020, CE EN 166:2001
---------------------	---------------------------------

Technical Specifications

Autoclave Durability

35 cycles

Cycles

121 °C

Temperature

Anti-Fog Longevity	25 cycles
--------------------	-----------

Design & Comfort

Key Features

- Super-soft frame with indirect ventilation
- Toughened, optically correct polycarbonate lens
- Compatible with prescription eyewear
- Non-linting, latex-free headband
- Dielectric construction

Lens Characteristics

Anti-scratch • Optically Correct • Polycarbonate