

Automated Bread Maker

This automated bread maker is suitable for bread making in commercial settings. It features a control panel with buttons and ventilation slots.

Product Overview

Professional Automated Bread Making

This automated bread maker is designed to streamline the baking process in both domestic and commercial environments. Featuring an intuitive control panel and a convenient viewing window, it offers consistent results for various bread types. The unit is built with integrated ventilation to ensure optimal performance during extended operation cycles.

Key Features

Key Features

- Automated baking cycle
- Integrated top-view window
- Digital control panel with display
- Side and top ventilation system

Design & Build

Color
Yellow

Application

Suitable Environments

Domestic, Commercial