

Automated Machine Tool System

This automated machine tool system integrates a computer interface and a control panel. The system is housed in a cabinet with a ventilation system and drawer.

Overview

Automated Machine Tool System

This comprehensive automated machine tool system is designed for precise industrial operations. It features an integrated control unit with a dedicated computer tower, monitor, and manual control interface for streamlined workflow management. The robust cabinet design ensures secure storage and reliable operation with built-in ventilation for long-term durability.

System Components

Control Interface

- Computer Tower
- CRT Monitor
- Keyboard
- Mouse
- Integrated Control Panel

Model Number

XBK-6230

Hardware Features

Control Panel Indicators

1 set

Manual Switches

1 set

Integrated Meters

Cabinet Capabilities

Lockable Drawer, Ventilation System, Control Integration