

Automotive Brake Shoes

These brake shoes are designed for automotive braking systems. They provide reliable stopping power and are manufactured to meet or exceed OEM specifications.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Performance Automotive Brake Shoes

These automotive brake shoes are engineered to deliver excellent stopping power while maintaining quiet operation without squealing. Designed for durability and safety, they feature advanced friction materials that ensure a short braking distance and consistent performance under high temperatures and pressure. With a service life exceeding 30,000 kilometers, these components are a reliable choice for maintaining effective braking systems.

Performance Metrics

Key Performance Metrics

30000 km
Service Life

Technical Details

Surface Treatment

- Paint
- Powder coat
- Electronic paint

Material Composition

Semi-metallic, Ceramic

Manufacturing & Customization

Customization Options

- Processing with supplied samples
- Custom trademark application
- Customer-branded packaging

Warranty Policy

Free replacement of the same quantity of goods in the event of any quality problems.