

Automotive Tire Changer

This tire changer is designed for professional automotive service environments. It features a clamping system to securely hold wheels and a pneumatic bead breaker arm to efficiently separate the tire bead from the rim.

Overview

Professional Tire Service Solution

The LTC95 is a robust and reliable tire changer engineered for professional automotive service environments. It features a powerful clamping system and a pneumatic bead breaker arm that efficiently separates tire beads from rims, significantly reducing manual effort. Designed for durability with heavy-duty steel construction, this machine is an essential tool for any tire shop or automotive repair facility.

Features

Key Features

- Powerful clamping system
- Pneumatic bead breaker arm
- Rotating turntable
- Foot pedal control
- Adjustable bead breaker shovel
- Integrated tire inflation system

Safety Compliance

Safety Warning Labelled, Professional Grade

Construction

Build Quality

Heavy-duty Steel