

Automotive Window Tint Film

This high-performance solar control film is designed for automotive window tinting, providing heat rejection, glare reduction and UV protection. It enhances privacy and improves the aesthetic appearance of vehicles.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Performance Solar Control Film

This automotive window tint film is engineered for superior solar control, providing excellent heat rejection, glare reduction, and UV protection. Designed for durability and scratch resistance, it significantly enhances vehicle privacy and interior comfort while protecting upholstery from fading. The film is available in various shades to meet specific light transmission requirements and offers a cost-effective solution for improving energy efficiency and driving comfort.

Performance Features

Featured Metrics

99 % UV Rejection	100 High Heat Insulation
-----------------------------	------------------------------------

Core Advantages

High Heat Insulation, High Permeability, UV Protection, Glare Reduction, Scratch Resistant, Privacy Enhancement

Customization & Services

Available Services

- Size customization available
- Brand packaging customization available
- Various VLT (Visible Light Transmission) options