

Aviation Snips Sheet Metal Cutter

These aviation snips are designed for cutting sheet metal. They feature high leverage handles for increased cutting power and a comfortable grip.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Aviation Snips

These aviation snips are engineered for precision cutting of sheet metal in demanding industrial and construction environments. Featuring a 250mm (10 inch) design, they provide high leverage for increased cutting power while minimizing hand fatigue. The durable construction ensures long-lasting performance for various metalworking applications.

Technical Specifications

| | |
|--------------|--------------------|
| Length | 250 mm |
| Cutting Type | Straight |
| Tool Type | Aviation Tin Snips |

Features

Key Features

- High leverage handles for increased power
- Ergonomic grip for reduced fatigue
- Durable construction for long-lasting use

Safety & Compliance

| | |
|--------------------|---|
| Safety Information | Non-insulation tools, Wear eye protection |
|--------------------|---|