

Bean-to-Cup Coffee Maker with Built-In Grinder

This bean-to-cup coffee maker is designed for brewing coffee directly from coffee beans. It features a built-in grinder, programmable timer, and a thermal carafe to keep coffee hot.

Overview

Professional Bean-to-Cup Brewing

This versatile coffee maker is designed for both home and office environments, offering the convenience of brewing directly from fresh beans with its integrated grinder. It features a programmable timer and a thermal carafe to ensure your coffee remains at the ideal temperature for extended periods. With adjustable settings for brew strength and cup size, users can easily customize their coffee experience via an intuitive digital control panel.

Key Performance Metrics

Performance Metrics

1 unit

Built-in Grinder

24 hr

Programmable Timer

Technical Features

Grinding System	Integrated bean grinder for maximum freshness
Carafe Type	Thermal carafe for heat retention
Water Reservoir	Removable for easy filling and cleaning

Customization & Control

Control Interface

- Digital display
- Push-button controls
- Time Set function
- Delay Set function

Adjustable Settings

Brew Strength, Cup Size

Applications

Suitable Environments

Home Use • Office Use