

Bean-to-Cup Espresso Maker with Built-In Grinder

This bean-to-cup espresso maker is designed for home use, allowing users to enjoy freshly brewed espresso from whole beans. It features a built-in grinder, electronic controls, and a steam wand for frothing milk.

Overview

Professional Quality Bean-to-Cup Brewing

The HE120A is a versatile espresso maker designed to deliver freshly brewed coffee directly from whole beans. Featuring an integrated grinder and electronic controls, it provides a seamless experience for crafting high-quality espresso at home. The combination of stainless steel and durable components ensures a sleek, modern aesthetic that fits perfectly into any contemporary kitchen environment.

Key Features

Main Features

- Built-in coffee bean grinder
- Electronic control interface
- Integrated steam wand for milk frothing
- Removable water reservoir
- Detachable drip tray for easy maintenance

Technical Specifications

Primary Functions

Grinding • Brewing • Frothing

Model Number	HE120A
Construction Materials	Stainless Steel, Durable Plastic

Maintenance

Cleaning & Maintenance

- Removable water tank for quick refills
- Easy-to-clean removable drip tray
- Accessible steam wand for routine wiping