

Brass Ball Valve with Red Handle

This brass ball valve is designed for controlling fluid flow in various industrial and plumbing applications. It features standard threaded connections for easy installation and is certified by CSA and FM Approved.

Overview

Industrial Brass Ball Valve

This robust brass ball valve is engineered for reliable fluid flow control in demanding industrial and plumbing environments. Featuring a durable construction and a high-visibility red handle for easy operation, it ensures consistent performance and safety. Designed with standard threaded connections, this valve allows for quick and efficient installation in various piping systems.

Technical Specifications

Material	Brass
Size	3/4 inch
Handle Color	Red

Certifications

Industry Certifications

CSA • FM Approved