

Business Corded Telephone with Caller ID

This corded telephone is designed for business use. It features a standard keypad layout and a display screen for caller ID.

Product Overview

Professional Business Communication

This corded telephone is specifically engineered for professional office environments requiring consistent and reliable landline connectivity. Featuring a clear display screen for caller ID and a standard, intuitive keypad layout, it ensures efficient call management for daily business operations. The durable design includes a high-quality coiled handset cord, making it a dependable choice for desks and workstations.

Key Features

Core Features

- Caller ID display
- Standard keypad layout
- Corded handset connectivity
- Designed for office use

Technical Specifications

Connectivity

Corded • Landline

Recommended Environment

Office and Business