

Business Telephone with Thermal Printer

Corded business telephone featuring a standard keypad and function buttons. Includes a thermal printer for printing receipts or transaction records.

Product Overview

Integrated Transaction Solution

This professional business telephone system combines essential communication capabilities with an integrated thermal printing module. Designed for efficiency, the unit allows users to manage calls while simultaneously generating physical receipts or transaction records. Its compact footprint makes it an ideal solution for service counters, retail points, or office environments requiring immediate documentation.

Technical Specifications

Model Number	HPE-500
Device Type	Business Telephone, Thermal Printer, Integrated System
Display	Green LCD Screen
Printer Connectivity	Wired cable connection

Key Features

Core Functionalities

- Standard telephone keypad layout
- Dedicated function buttons
- Receipt and transaction printing
- Ergonomic handset design